Form W-4 (2018)

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose. Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. Consider completing a new Form W-4 each year and when your personal or financial situation changes.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2018 if both of the following apply.

- For 2017 you had a right to a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you had no tax liability, and
- For 2018 you expect a refund of all federal income tax withheld because you expect to have no tax liability.

If you're exempt, complete only lines 1, 2, 3, 4, and 7 and sign the form to validate it. Your exemption for 2018 expires February 15, 2019. See Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, to learn more about whether you qualify for exemption from withholding.

General Instructions

If you aren't exempt, follow the rest of these instructions to determine the number of withholding allowances you should claim for withholding for 2018 and any additional amount of tax to have withheld. For regular wages, withholding must be based on allowances you claimed and may not be a flat amount or percentage of wages.

You can also use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to determine your tax withholding more accurately. Consider using this calculator if you have a more complicated tax situation, such as if you have a working spouse, more than one job, or a large amount of nonwage income outside of your job. After your Form W-4 takes effect, you can also use this calculator to see how the amount of tax you're having withheld compares to your projected total tax for 2018. If you use the calculator, you don't need to complete any of the worksheets for Form W-4.

Note that if you have too much tax withheld, you will receive a refund when you file your tax return. If you have too little tax withheld, you will owe tax when you file your tax return, and you might owe a penalty.

Filers with multiple jobs or working spouses. If you have more than one job at a time, or if you're married and your spouse is also working, read all of the instructions including the instructions for the Two-Earners/Multiple Jobs Worksheet before beginning.

Nonwage income. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments using Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals. Otherwise, you might owe additional tax. Or, you can use the Deductions, Adjustments, and Other Income Worksheet on page 3 or the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to make sure you have enough tax withheld from your paycheck. If you have pension or annuity income, see Pub. 505 or use the calculator at www.irs.gov/W4App to find out if you should adjust your withholding on Form W-4 or W-4P.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Personal Allowances Worksheet

Complete this worksheet on page 3 first to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim.

Line C. Head of household please note: Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you're unmarried and pay more than 50% of the costs of keeping up a home for yourself and a qualifying individual. See Pub. 501 for more information about filing status.

Line E. Child tax credit. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your qualifying children. To qualify, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31 and must be your dependent who lives with you for more than half the year. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line E of the worksheet. On the worksheet you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of your wages and other income, including income earned by a spouse, during the year.

Line F. Credit for other dependents. When you file your tax return, you might be eligible to claim a credit for each of your dependents that don't qualify for the child tax credit, such as any dependent children age 17 and older. To learn more about this credit, see Pub. 505. To reduce the tax withheld from your pay by taking this credit into account, follow the instructions on line F of the worksheet. On the worksheet, you will be asked about your total income. For this purpose, total income includes all of

Type of Account: Checking Savings

Authorization

I hereby authorize First Street Payroll Services, LLC, including its affiliated companies, to direct deposit payroll credit entries to my checking/savings account indicated above and the Financial Institution above to post the same such account.

This agreement is to remain in force until First Street Payroll Services, LLC receives a written notice of cancellation from me (see below). The notice of cancellation must be received at least thirty (30) days prior to cancellation and in such a manner as to afford First Street Payroll Services, LLC a reasonable opportunity to act on it and in no event shall it be effective with respect to entries processed by First Street Payroll Service, LLC prior to the receipt of the notice of cancellation.

I further authorize the First Street Payroll Services, LLC to initiate such debit entries to said account as may be necessary to correct any erroneous credit entries or mistakes previously initiated thereto and I authorize the Financial Institution to accept and to credit or debit the amount of such entries to my account. Furthermore, I hereby indemnify and hold harmless First Street Payroll Services, LLC from any liability connected with any failure to timely credit my account due to processing or other error or situation. I further understand that First Street Payroll Services, LLC is a third party processor. As such, they receive the funds to pay the direct deposit from my employer. I understand and authorize First Street Payroll Services, LLC to reverse any direct deposit for which they are not paid or for which the funds are for any reason not collected. I agree, without limitation to repay to First Street Payroll Services, LLC any amounts where my account could not be credited or debited for any reason for the reasons stated above. In the event it becomes necessary for First Street Payroll Service, LLC or me to institute litigation incident to this direct deposit, such litigation shall be handled by binding arbitration in Columbia County, Florida. The costs of all proceedings shall be borne by the non-prevailing party. This agreement shall be governed by the Laws of the State of Florida.

Cancellation

I hereby cancel the authorization for First Street Payroll Services, LLC to originate direct deposit payroll entries to my checking/savings account indicated above, effective on _____.
